USE OF CAMPSITE, VACANCY PERIOD AND YEAR-ROUND OCCUPANCY

Camping is an outdoor recreational activity. The participants known as campers leave their permanent residence and enjoy amenities and natural features of the outdoors. A campground is a designated area where camping takes place.

It is agreed between the parties that the intended use for the Site is for recreational and vacation purposes only. The Park is designed and intended for use for seasonal or temporary campground and recreational use only and as such the trailer on site cannot be used as permanent residential or home address.

It is agreed by the parties that the actual use of the Site shall be for seasonal, recreational purposes for temporary periods of time only and as further restricted by periods of Park Closure. As well during any use of the specified site by the Campers, the Campers shall maintain a residential premise elsewhere than at the park, that the Campers have unlimited access to and it is acknowledged by the Campers that zoning for the Park prohibits residential uses of Sites in the Park.

It is agreed and understood between the parties that the words "seasonal" or "temporary periods of time" as set out in paragraph 2 above may include periodic or recurrent use pertaining to all seasons of the year, but shall not include use of the Site when the Park is closed, from January 1st. to March 1st. in any given year.

The Owner shall pay to the Camper, on an annual basis interest on the security deposit, calculated at the rate established from time to time as the Royal Bank of Canada prime rate for Canadian customers, less one per cent per annum. The said prime rate shall be set for the purposes of the contract at the commencement date of this contact and updated semi-annually thereafter.

The Camper also agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Owner, its officers, employees, agents, and servants from all claims, suits, actions (and damages arising therefrom) which may be brought against the owner, its officers, employees, agents and servants arising in any manner whatsoever at the Campsite from any acts or failure to act by the Camper, or the Campers employees, agents, servants, and guest.

The Camper shall pay all removal costs, storage and miscellaneous charges incurred by the owner.

The Owner shall give the Camper 15 days notice of such charges and should the Camper not pay to the owners such charges with 15 days after receipt of such notice, the owner shall have the right to sell the Trailer and its contents and apply the sale proceeds to pay all monies owing by the camper to the Owner. Any proceeds remaining after the payment of such costs shall be paid to the Camper.

In the event that this Site shall be repossessed under the terms of this contract any goods including any trailer that the Camper has left on the Site shall be deemed to be an article as defined by the Repair and Storage Liens Act of Ontario, (hereinafter referred to as "the Act"), may be removed by the owner who shall be deemed to be a lien claimant and storer under the Act, to whatever location the owner deems appropriate and the Owner is such removal and storage will not be responsible for any loss or damage to such goods.
